_____

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

The role of the support person in a child protective services investigation is to be present with the child. The presence of a familiar person may reduce the trauma to the child and may aid the child in the disclosure of important information. Please do not make any comments, ask any questions, or in any way encourage the child to make responses as this could jeopardize the findings of the investigation.

Any information the support person might acquire through the interview process must be kept confidential.

I, _____, agree to be a support person for the child(ren) named above under the terms stated above.
